

Can a dog be a hero?

Can a dog be a hero
Yes the chance is not zero
When smoke swirls and twirls he acts
His bark saved them that's the facts

Flames licking up its victim
Knowing the wrong with wisdom
Surrounded in deadly smoke
This is no practical joke

Scurrying out of the house
But the fire's quiet as a mouse
The kind hero gets back on track
The brave dog has to go back

While his lungs are collapsing
Living should be his lapsing
So he searched for everybody else
I could have been there myself

My loving dog died a hero
So the chance is not zero

Nature's Findings: Nordhouse Dunes Trail

Walking down a lime-covered path
a tiny mushroom full of wrath
Near the size of Lincoln's penny
Fluorescent orange is plenty

It reminds me of my mom's rug
A hole just its size should be dug

Circling wind changing its pattern
Going from eastern to western
Just like the wind by a lighthouse
My old play house squeaks like a mouse

Many shapes of leaves catch my eye
But disease makes nature cry
I used a dichotomous key
Like dendrologists finding glee

So look at our amazing world
So many things there are unfurled.
