

Justice for Past and Present

What are you willing to do?
They weep, they scream, they beg.
Praying to be free.

Who will undo what has been done?
The earth is dug.
Once peaceful, now they are torn.

Who is stopping the wiindigoo from their crimes?
The difference from the past and present blends
If not respected then, why now?

Find justice from the ground.
Sing and weep with the ancestors.
Help them find home.
What are you willing to do?